CUNY★AMERICAN DREAM MACHINE

Affordable

TOP RANKED TWO YEARS IN A ROW!

York College has been recognized for two consecutive years for graduating students with the lowest debt in the nation.

Supportive

At York, find a passion, a dream...

...and the faculty will support you.

Innovative

Kevin Lynch and James Popp, two York College physicists are developing a solution to search for a new method to find Nuclear contraband potentially hidden in the hundreds of thousands of shipping containers that arrive at U.S. ports, under a three year, $300,000 grant from the Air Force Office of Scientific Research.

Socially Conscious

York Social Work students work with older adults learning computer skills in Rochdale Village, Queens.

Creative

Camilo Iribarren, a senior Bio major is making a name for himself with his recently-published first novel, Conjuring Deception, the story of a group of magicians helping an FBI agent to solve a series of sleight of hand crimes.

“To me, life is a magic trick,” said Iribarren. “Magic is what life brings you. The trick is how to make the best of it. How are you going to prepare yourself for it?”

Rachelle Antoine, a Social Work major, along with fellow York students marched with thousands of others across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Bloody Sunday.

Transformed

She returned transformed, immediately declared her candidacy for a spot on York Student Government and is now serving as President of the SGA. She intends to be the change she wants to see. She is pictured here at the march with Civil Rights icon, Congressman John Lewis.

High School Partnership

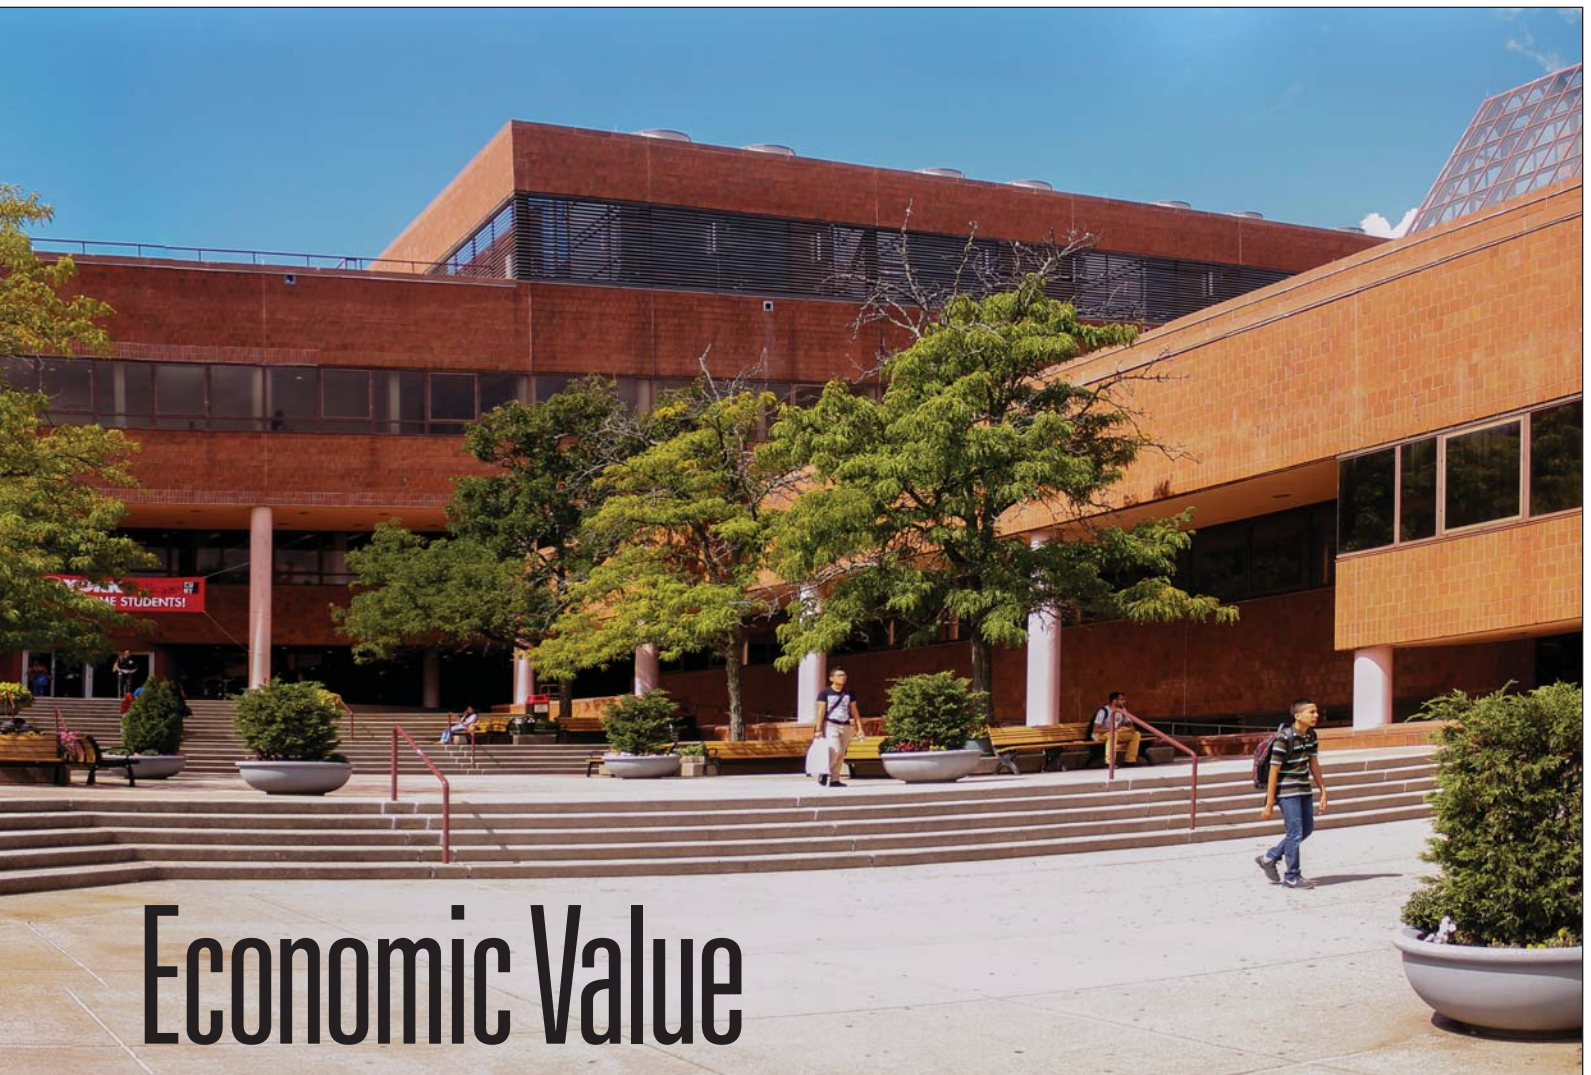

York College has a partnership with New York City public high schools and is home to the York Early College Academy (YECA) and the Queens High School for the Sciences at York College. York also collaborates with 15 additional high schools through CUNY's College Now program.

YORK College FDA Partnership

In 2000 York College partnered with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to establish the FDA's Northeast Regional Laboratory on York's campus. The results include a M.S. degree in Pharmaceutical Sciences, student science internships, faculty interactions and permanent jobs for graduates.

Economic Value

York employees include over 500 full/part-time faculty and 876 support staff employees.

51% of York employees live in Queens.

The college adds more than $93 million to the tax base through staff salaries, directly impacting the local Jamaica consumer economy and the broader Queens economy.

Revitalizing Jamaica

On August 17, 2016 Governor Andrew Cuomo came to Jamaica to announce that Downtown Jamaica was selected as the winner of the $10 million Downtown Revitalization Initiative, a component of the state's New York City Regional Economic Development Council (NYCREDC). York College, the Greater Jamaica Development Corporation, and the Office of the Queens Borough President, were the applicants that submitted the award-winning proposal for the Governor's Downtown Revitalization Initiative.

STARTUP@YORK College CUNY

York College is literally ready for business — as an Empire State Development START-UP NY site, Governor Andrew Cuomo's initiative to create tax-free communities for new and expanding businesses on SUNY and CUNY campuses throughout the state of New York.

Our Future

Securing Funding to Build the York College Academic Village and Conference Center

The proposed Academic Village and Conference Center will benefit the community by creating construction jobs and other employment opportunities. This new building will address the need for additional space due to record enrollment growth; and serve as a beacon of Southeast Queens and downtown Jamaica. The nine-story structure will be approximately 162,988 gross square feet and boast a sustainable roof garden.
